Credit Score

as of 2023/09/05

You don't just have one credit score. There are many different credit scores provided by different companies that are used to help predict how likely you are to pay your bills on time. The Equifax Credit Score provided above is created using a model developed by Equifax and is intended for your own educational use. It is also commercially available to third parties. Please keep in mind third parties may use a different score when evaluating your creditworthiness.

Also, third parties will consider items other than your credit score, such as information on your credit file and information you provide in your application for credit, when making a determination about of your creditworthiness.

Employment

You currently have no employment records on your credit file.

Inquiries

A record of access to your credit file is created by posting inquiries to your credit file. An inquiry will include the name of the entity that accessed your credit file and a phone number that you can call if you have questions about the access. Two types of inquiries may be posted on your credit file; hard and soft inquiries. Soft inquiries are visible only to you and do not affect credit scores. Hard inquiries are visible to any authorized recipient of your credit file and may affect credit scores.
